MARYLAND FILM PRODUCTION REBATE FUND REPORT

Summary of Program

The Film Production Rebate Fund was initially enacted during the 2005 legislative session as the Film Production Wage Rebate Program. During the 2007 legislative session, the Program was revised from a program based on wages to one based on a percentage of the total qualified spend – including wages. The Program was repealed on June 1, 2011 with the passage of the Maryland Film Production Employment Act of 2011.

For the length of the program, the Film Production Rebate Fund was instrumental in securing 17 productions to film in the state: Rocket Science, Step Up, Step Up 2, Boy of Pigs, seasons 4 and 5 of The Wire, From Within, Bumper, My One and Only, The Dead Ones, Lovely Molly (aka, Possession), Brooklyn Brothers Beat the Best, L.U.V. and Game Change and three pilots for television series, The Washingtonienne, Past Life and VEEP. Since the inception of this program, Maryland has rebated $19,848,729 and received $108,739,909 in direct expenditures. This resulted in an economic impact of $236 million and included 3,108 local Maryland hires of crew, 13,911 local Maryland hires of actors/extras and business for 4,874 Maryland companies and contractors.

Five grants closed during FY2011 and the first part of FY 2012. The grants were $125,000 for Lovely Molly (aka, Possession), $125,000 for Brooklyn Brothers Beat the Best, $782,319 for the pilot episode for VEEP, $170,931 for L.U.V. and $3,175,593 for Game Change. $290,000 in grant funds were encumbered for another independent film - Exists - which ultimately ended up filming in another state. The grant agreement was dissolved and the funds were released back into the general fund. These five productions generated a combined qualified spend of $17,642,913.

The economic impact in Maryland from these five productions, calculated with a multiplier of 2.17, is approximately $38.3 million and includes 380 local Maryland hires of crew, 1,281 local Maryland hires of actors/extras and business for 749 Maryland companies and contractors.

Description of Program – Chapter 87, Act of 2007 which amended Chapters 96 and 97, Acts of 2005

In 2007, House Bill 1185 (Chapter 87) was passed to amend Chapters 96 and 97, Acts of 2005 which established the Maryland Film Production Employer Wage Rebate Program to help retain film production in Maryland. HB 1185 amended the old statute by altering the program from a rebate based on a percentage of wages to one based on a percentage of the production spend – which includes wages. In addition, the legislation removed the $2 million per project cap. The program title was changed to the Film Production Rebate Fund.

The legislation required the Department of Business and Economic Development to administer the Film Production Rebate Fund.

The program allowed a qualified film, television or commercial production company filming on location in Maryland to claim a rebate of up to 25% of the total direct costs incurred in the State while filming on-location. Production companies spending a minimum of $500,000 in Maryland were eligible to apply for the rebate. Funding for the program has ranged from $1 million to $6.785 million.

The Film Production Rebate Fund was repealed, effective June 1, 2011, with the passage of the Maryland Film Production Employment Act of 2011 during the 2011 legislative session.

Details on the Rebates

The following grant closed in FY2011:

Lovely Molly (aka, Possession) marked the return of director Eduardo Sanchez, a current Maryland resident, to film in Maryland. Sanchez was the director/writer/producer on one of the most successful independent films of all times which also filmed in Maryland, The Blair Witch Project. Lovely Molly is a psychological thriller revolving around one troubled young woman. Filming took place in and around Frederick and Washington Counties. The film premiered at the Toronto Film Festival. The production began filming on October 17, 2010 and wrapped its 20 day shoot on November 12, 2010. The production hired 20 local technicians, 36 local actors/extras and provided business for 168 local vendors and contractors. Lovely Molly (aka, Possession) received a grant for $125,000 and had an economic impact of over $1.2 million.

The following grants closed in FY2012:

VEEP was the pilot episode of a half hour comedy series about the first female Vice-President of the United States, starring Julia Louis-Dreyfus. This project was the first episode of an 8 episode series. The project was created, written, and directed, by Armando Iannucci who wrote and directed the critically acclaimed political satire In the Loop. The series was picked up and returned, as a recipient of one of the first Maryland Film Production Employment Act tax Credits, to film in the fall/winter of 2011. The series is scheduled to air on HBO in March. The production began filming on February 26, 2011 and wrapped its 6 day shoot on March 5, 2011. The production hired 107 local technicians, 125 local actors/extras and provided business for 156 local vendors and contractors. VEEP received a grant for $782,319 and had an economic impact of over $6.8 million.

Brooklyn Brothers Beat the Best is a buddy film that follows the road trip of two aspiring musicians and the comical situations they get themselves into while achieving success. The producer of this project, Jason Berman, is originally from Maryland and still has family here. Filming took place around Baltimore City, Baltimore County and Ocean City, Maryland. The film premiered at the Toronto Film Festival. The production began filming on October 12, 2010 and wrapped its 18 day shoot on November 3, 2010. The production hired 29 local technicians, 68 local actors/extras and provided business for 201 local vendors and contractors. Brooklyn Brothers Beat the Best received a grant for $125,000 and had an economic impact of over $1 million.

L.U.V. is a coming-of-age story set in the streets of South Baltimore. The film stars, Common, Danny Glover and Roc Dutton. L.U.V. was produced by Jason Berman who also filmed the independent feature, Brooklyn Brothers Beat the Best, in Maryland. Filming took place around Baltimore City. The film is premiering in competition at the 2012 Sundance Film Festival this month. The production began filming on April 18, 2011 and wrapped its 18 day shoot on May 9, 2011. The production hired 31 local technicians, 60 local actors/extras and provided business for 67 local vendors and contractors. L.U.V. received a grant for $170,931 and had an economic impact of $1.5 million.

Game Change follows John McCain's 2008 presidential campaign, from his selection of Alaska Governor Sarah Palin as his running mate to their ultimate defeat in the general election. Based on the bestselling book of the same name by John Heilemann and Mark Halperin, the film was directed and executive produced by Jay Roach and written and co-executive produced by Danny Strong, whose previous collaboration was HBO's Emmy Award winning film, Recount, which earned an Emmy and DGA Award for Roach and an Emmy nomination and WGA Award for Strong. The film stars Julianne Moore as Sarah Palin, Ed Harris as John McCain and Woody Harrelson as Steve Schmidt and will premiere on HBO in March. The production began filming on April 27, 2011 and wrapped its 32 day shoot on June 10, 2011. The production hired 193 local technicians, 992 local actors/extras and provided business for 157 local vendors and contractors. Game Change received a grant for $3,175,593 and had an economic impact of over $27.6 million.

The production, Exists, received a commitment for a $290,000 rebate, but ultimately ended up filming elsewhere. The grant agreement was dissolved and the committed funds were released.

Conclusion

The Film Production Rebate Fund, formerly the Employer Wage Rebate Program, was enacted in order to maintain film and television production activity in Maryland in the face of an industry steadily shifting to foreign countries and states with well-funded rebate and tax credit structures in place.

From its inception, the Film Production Rebate Fund was instrumental in securing seventeen productions to film in the state: Rocket Science, Step Up, Step Up 2, Boy of Pigs, seasons 4 and 5 of The Wire, From Within, Bumper, My One and Only, The Dead Ones, Lovely Molly (aka, Possession), Brooklyn Brothers Beat the Best, L.U.V. and Game Change and three pilots for television series, The Washingtonienne, Past Life and VEEP. Since the inception of this program, Maryland has rebated $19.8 million and received $108.7 million in direct expenditures. This resulted in an economic impact of $236 million and included 3,108 local Maryland hires of crew, 13,911 local Maryland hires of actors/extras and business for 4,874 Maryland companies and contractors.

The program was repealed June 1, 2011 with the passage of the Maryland Film Production Employment Act of 2011.
