History & Mission: The Army Contracting Command-APG is the premier Army leader in acquiring quality, technologically superior, next generation equipment and services in the shortest time for our warfighters while obtaining best value for the American taxpayer. It is a full service, life-cycle acquisition organization that is expert in market research as well as the solicitation, award and administration of contracts, grants, cooperative agreements and other transactions. They provide comprehensive contacting, business advisory support and sustained expertise through six major competency areas: Research and Development; Command, Control, Communications, Computer, Intelligence, Surveillance and Reconnaissance (C4ISR); Cybersecurity; Test and Evaluation; Chemical and Biological Defense; and Medical Research. They offer access to state-of-the art technology and a wide gamut of products and services which provide our Soldiers with the best resources possible. As a Contracting Center under the direction of the U.S. Army Contracting Command, they provide global contracting support to a diverse customer base in support of the Joint Warfighter. The ACC headquarters is located at Redstone Arsenal in Alabama.
